Thank you so much for sharing your story and empowering women to love themselves through God's love. So far the book has helped me in so many ways as far as strengthening my walk with God and building my self-esteem. Once again, thank you so much from the bottom of my heart for writing this book. You are inspiring women and changing the lives of others.

Priceless! This book is liberating and will challenge you to get unstuck from people and things that are hurting you. Like your difficult moments of depression, heart broken, lost of a love one, or if you are helping your aged parents, she encourages you to take care of your self too or you can become the patient. ....I love her idea on how to get past your "uglies!"
